Automic Pty Ltd (ABN 27 152 260 814) trading as Automic Registry Services

OUR COMMITMENT

This APP Privacy Policy applies to Automic Registry Services and its staff (including all Authorised Representatives). We are committed to providing you with the highest levels of client service. We recognise that your privacy is very important to you. The Privacy Amendment (Enhancing Privacy Protection) Act 2012, sets out a number of Australian Privacy Principles (APPs). Our aim is to both support and ensure that we comply with these principles. Further information on privacy in Australia may be obtained by visiting the website of the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner at <http://www.oaic.gov.au/>

We believe that this Privacy Policy discloses the purpose, and how the personal information you provide to us and our representatives, is collected, used, held, disclosed and disseminated.

We encourage you to check our website regularly for any updates to our Privacy Policy.

YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

As an organisation we are subject to certain legislative and regulatory requirements which necessitate us to obtain personal information about you; for example:

- name, contact details, banking instructions, date of birth, tax file number

HOW WE COLLECT PERSONAL INFORMATION

We collect personal information directly from you or from third parties once authorisation has been provided by you. You have a right to refuse us authorisation to collect information from a third party.

HOW WE USE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

Primarily, your personal information is used in order to provide a service to you. We may also use the information that is related to the primary purpose and it is reasonable for you to expect the information to be disclosed.

From time to time, we may provide you with direct marketing material. If, at any time, you do not wish to receive this information any further, you may contact us with this request. We will endeavour to meet your request within 2 weeks. We maintain a Register for those individuals not wanting direct marketing material.

WHEN WE DISCLOSE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

In line with modern business practices common to many financial institutions and to meet your specific needs we may disclose your personal information to the following organisations:

- other product providers in order to manage or administer your product or service;
- compliance consultants;
- contractors or temporary staff to handle workloads during peak periods;
- mailing houses;
- your professional advisers, including your solicitor or accountant as authorised by you;
- information technology service providers;
- government and regulatory authorities, as required or authorised by law;

- another authorised representative of the licensee;
- a potential purchaser/organisation involved in the proposed sale of our business for the purpose of due diligence, corporate re-organisation and transfer or all or part of the assets of our business. Disclosure will be made in confidence and it will be a condition of that disclosure that no personal information will be used or disclosed by them; and
- a new owner of our business that will require the transfer of your personal information.

Our representatives and the outsourcing companies/contractors are obliged to respect the confidentiality of any personal information held by us.

The Corporations Act has provided the Australian Securities and Investments Commission with the authority to inspect certain personal information that is kept on our files about you.

We collect information about you for the purpose of reporting to AUSTRAC under the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006.

We take our obligations to protect your information seriously, this includes when we operate throughout Australia and overseas, as part of our operations some uses and disclosures of your information may occur outside your State or Territory and/or outside of Australia. In some circumstances we may need to obtain your consent before this occurs.

HOW WE STORE AND SECURE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

We keep your personal information in your client files or electronically. These files are accessible to authorised personnel only and are appropriately secured and subject to confidentiality requirements.

Personal information will be treated as confidential information and sensitive information will be treated highly confidential.

It is a legislative requirement that we keep all personal information and records for a period of 7 years. Should you cease to be a client of ours, we will maintain your personal information on or off site in a secure manner for 7 years. After this, the information will be destroyed.

ENSURE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION IS CORRECT

We take all reasonable precautions to ensure that the personal information we collect, use and disclose is accurate, complete and up-to-date. To ensure we can maintain this level of accuracy and completeness, we recommend that you:

- inform us of any errors in your personal information; and
- update us with any changes to your personal information as soon as possible. If you provide inaccurate or incomplete information we may not be able to provide you with the products or services you are seeking.

ACCESS TO YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

You have a right to access your personal information, subject to certain exceptions allowed by law. We ask that you provide your request for access in writing (for security reasons) and we will provide you with access to that personal information. Access to the requested personal information may include:

- providing you with copies;
- providing you with the opportunity for inspection; or
- providing you with a summary.

If charges are applicable in providing access to you, we will disclose these charges to you prior to providing you with the information.

Some exceptions exist where we will not provide you with access to your personal information if:

- providing access would pose a serious threat to the life or health of a person;
- providing access would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others;
- the request for access is frivolous or vexatious;
- the information is related to existing or anticipated legal proceedings between us and would not be discoverable in those proceedings;
- providing access would reveal our intentions in relation to negotiations with you in such a way as to prejudice those negotiations;
- providing access would be unlawful;
- denying access is required or authorised by or under law;
- providing access would be likely to prejudice certain operations by or on behalf of an enforcement body or an enforcement body requests that access not be provided on the grounds of national security.

Should we refuse you access to your personal information, we will provide you with a written explanation for that refusal.

USING GOVERNMENT IDENTIFIERS

Although in certain circumstances we are required to collect government identifiers such as your tax file number, we do not use or disclose this information other than when required or authorised by law or unless you have voluntarily consented to disclose this information to any third party.

DEALING WITH US ANONYMOUSLY

You can deal with us anonymously where it is lawful and practicable to do so. For example, if you telephone requesting our postal address.

YOUR SENSITIVE INFORMATION

Without your consent we will not collect information about you that reveals your racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs or affiliations, membership of professional or trade association, membership of a trade union, details of health, disability, sexual orientation, or criminal record.

This is subject to some exceptions including:

- the collection is required by law; and
- when the information is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of a legal claim.

COMPLAINTS RESOLUTIONS

Please contact our Privacy Officer if you wish to complain about any breach or potential breach of your privacy rights. Your complaint will be responded to within 7 days. If you are not satisfied with the outcome of your complaint, you are entitled to contact the Office of the Privacy Commissioner.

OUR WEBSITE

We have a website that provides links to third party websites. The use of your information by these third party sites is not within our control and we cannot accept responsibility for the conduct of these organisations.
